The second stop is at Huarique "El Chinito" where different types of meat typical of the coast will be tasted. We go to the farmers market in San Isidro where they will taste native fruits of the country such as Lúcumá, Chirimoya, Pitaya, Tuna, etc. It also allows us to enjoy aromas such as herbs and spices, see the variety of fish and seafood, as well as flowers. If you wish, you will have the opportunity to do some shopping and help local producers. Additionally, in the market we will have the opportunity to taste and delight in the fresh flavor of a ceviche or shells to the criolla.

We start from the market in the direction of Miraflores by the boardwalk. A stop is made in one of the viewpoints to enjoy the contrast of the green of our gardens with the blue of the Pacific Ocean.
